Due to the physical activity involved with our walks, we require all guests 75 years of age or over at the time of their walk to obtain a medical clearance from a medical practitioner. If your medical practitioner does not provide you with a medical clearance, your deposit is fully refundable. Any cancellation after a successful medical clearance is subject to our standard cancellation policy.

Travel Insurance

We recommend that you are insured for the duration of your tour. We strongly recommend that the policy covers personal liability, cancellation and curtailment and loss of luggage/personal effects, coverage for medical expenses.

Health and Fitness

All tours require a moderate to high level of fitness and a degree of mental stamina. Being physically prepared is paramount to the experience and to yours and the group's safety. If you are not physically prepared you may need to, or may be asked to miss certain days walking for yours and the group's wellbeing. Being physically prepared will ensure you gain maximum involvement and enjoyment on your trek.

It is vital that you inform us of any medical conditions that may affect you during your time with us. We need to know so that we can ensure maximum safety, comfort and enjoyment on your rove. Consult your medical practitioner before your tour if you have any pre-existing medical conditions which may affect you whilst on the rove. Please advise us on the Booking Form of any medications you are taking, medical conditions (ie. allergies etc.) and any previous injuries or operations you may have or had.

You warrant (and Rove Numby relies on such warranty) that your physical condition and health are suitable to participate in the rove, and they have and will take any necessary medical precautions before embarking on the rove (and during the rove if necessary).

Car Parking

You acknowledge that you will be required to leave your car at the designated parking spot for the duration of the Rove. You will have no access to your car from the base camp whilst on the Rove. If you require urgent access to your car, you will need to speak with your Rove team leader and they will at your expense arrange for transport or a walking escort to your car.

Walking with Rove Numby

Your safety and wellbeing is our first priority. We walk together or within sight of each other and adjust the pace as required for the comfort and safety of all participants; please consider this as part of your booking. Each rove is unique and we endeavor to provide the best possible experience for each group. We do go off trail (and follow kangaroo tracks) when we walk and there is no marked walking paths to follow. If booking the tour as a group, in designing the Rove we can customize the Rove to the ability of the group.

Changes made during tour

Changes to the itinerary do occur in response to weather, road conditions, cultural considerations and other factors outside our control. Changes also take place in response to group needs or just to show you something special at the time. Changes are made at the discretion of the rove leaders.

Cancellation of tour

Cancellations of tours by the company may happen if minimum numbers are not reached. A minimum of 30 days' notice will be given to you with the option to book onto another of our tours or to receive a full refund. We reserve the right to cancel a tour in whole or in part at any time if we deem it necessary to do so due to a force majeure event. A force majeure event is any event beyond our control (including but not limited to a flood on the Lachlan River cutting access to the Rove base camp, the tour leader becomes ill, civil commotion, natural disaster or force of nature, act of God or the public enemy, or governmental restraint or restriction), which renders us unable to carry out the original tour itinerary in whole or in part, and which cannot be overcome by the exercise of reasonable care, proper precautions and the consideration of reasonable alternatives. We will not be liable to you in any way in respect of any such cancellation to the extent that it was deemed necessary by us due to a force majeure event/such an event.

Responsibility

It is your responsibility to be prepared for the physical and mental demands of each tour. We need your active participation to ensure the safety and wellbeing of the group, and to consult with us if you have any health/hygiene issues that may affect you or the group. We adhere to and implement minimal environmental impact approaches to every tour.

In the event that you require medical evacuation all additional costs will be borne by you. The decision to employ evacuation measures will be at the rove leader's discretion.

Adverse weather conditions may require changes to the trip structure and itinerary and may affect your personal comfort. To the fullest extent permitted by law, the Rove Numby Parties exclude all liability whether in contract, tort, under statute or otherwise (including without limitation in relation to any express or implied warranty or guarantee) arising from any injury suffered by you in connection with the activities, including in respect of any death, physical or mental injury (including aggravation, acceleration or recurrence of such an injury), contraction, aggravation or acceleration of a disease or coming into existence, aggravation, acceleration or recurrence of any other condition or occurrence that is or may be harmful or disadvantageous to you arising:

- from the activities not being supplied with due care and skill or not being reasonably fit for purpose or for any breaches or failure of any consumer guarantees under Schedule 2 to the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) (Australian Consumer Law),
- due to any act, error, omission or negligence of the Rove Numby Parties; or
- under breach of contract,

except to the extent caused by the reckless conduct of the Rove Numby Parties.

You agree that you are responsible for your personal belongings, and that the Rove Numby Parties are not liable to you in respect of any loss or damage to your personal belongings (except to the extent caused by the reckless actions of Rove Numby). To the fullest extent permitted by law, the Rove Numby Parties' liability to you for a breach of any non-excludable guarantee or liability is limited to a refund for any fees paid by you to the Rove Numby Parties to participate in the activities. Nothing in these terms and conditions excludes, limits or modifies the application of the Australian Consumer Law, or the exercise of any rights or remedies conferred by the Australian Consumer Law where to do so would contravene the Australian Consumer Law. You agree that these clauses are to be construed broadly to provide a release and waiver in favour of the Rove Numby Parties to the maximum extent permissible by law.

In order to preserve your own and other's safety, if you do not comply with the booking conditions, act in a way that neglects group safety or wilfully damages the environment, you may be asked to leave the tour or refused entry to the tour at your own expense.
